FINDING LIST

OF THE

PEABODY INSTITUTE LIBRARY

PEABODY, MASS.,

1878-1888.

PRINTED AT THE SALEM PRESS. SALEM, MASS. 1888.

NOTE.

A full dictionary catalogue of the library was made in 1872 and a supplement to the same was completed in June, 1878.

This finding list contains the accessions since June, 1878, arranged in classes, and is substantially the same as is familiar to the patrons of the library.

Catalogues, and the Specifications and Drawings of the U. S. Patent Office are not here catalogued, but can be examined in the library, by application to the librarian.

The Table of Contents and the Index will probably render the selection of books comparatively easy.

This work has been undertaken to render the newer books more accessible, and also to afford time for a thorough examination of the whole library, a rewriting of faded-out cards and a careful re-arrangement of the shelf lists.

The compiler has found the class lists of the Woburn Library and the catalogue of the Cincinnati Library, of great service in the preparation of this work, and desires thus to acknowledge his indebtedness therefor.

Peabody, Nov., 1888.
